

Belper Goes Green Workshops - Fun Palace Marquee

All workshops are free and on a drop in basis.. The workshops are a mixture of science and creative activities all run by experts in their field

June 3rd Saturday Morning 11.00-13.00

Katherine Wheatley an author and teacher will be there with her book 'Carbon Monster'. She will be making monsters and running a competition to win one of her books.

Chris Baxter from Chris Baxter Baskets will be giving people the opportunity to make their own willow bird feeders.

Suz Hennessy a local craft workshop leader and crochet enthusiast will be making fairies and animals with pipe cleaners, beads, wool and felt.

Frida Nzaba from WISE will be getting visitors to assemble aluminium engines and make pop out paper engines. She will also be able to give career advice for anyone but particularly girls wanting to go into engineering.

Howard and Michael from Amber First Responders will be teaching CPR and giving information to anyone wishing to become a Responder.

June 3rd Saturday Afternoon 14.00-16.00

Lauren Kinnersley a Forest School Leader and Story Teller from 'Into the Wild Wood', will be making Willow Wands and on Sunday she will be selling her fantastic felt puppets.

Kim Kerry a local textile artist/weaver will be weaving with lolly sticks.

Bob Allen a Retired Engineer and STEM Ambassador will show you how to make a whirlpool in a bottle.

Marilyn Deakin a local Fine Artist will be getting people to make their own collage of Belper using photographs of the area and different craft papers.

Howard and Michael from Amber First Responders will be teaching CPR and giving information to anyone wishing to become a Responder.

June 4th
Sunday Morning 11.00-13.00

Tan Draig a very well known Derbyshire Artist will be getting visitors to make their own moving water/windmill.

Caroline Lavery a Primary Teacher will be running a recycled science workshop making catapult planes, spinning paper helicopters and climbing creatures.

Mark Bouskill an Artist from Pontefract will be encouraging people to make their own hedgehogs.

Howard and Michael from Amber First Responders will be teaching CPR and giving information to anyone wishing to become a Responder.

Anne Clark a local Yarn Bomber and Event Organiser will be making fridge magnets from milk bottle caps.

June 4th
Sunday Afternoon 14.00-16.00

Helen Jones a Derbyshire Animal Artist www.visionfinearts.co.uk will be teaching some origami skills.

Nansy Ferret a local Artist and Singer, Songwriter will be getting people to make their own monsters from clay and junk.

Julie Wozniczca from the Trent River Trust will have water from the Coppice Brook for visitors to discover what lives in it.

Howard and Michael from Amber First Responders will be teaching CPR and giving information to anyone wishing to become a Responder.

Find out more details on the face-book page Anne Clark Handmade

! <https://www.facebook.com/Anneclarkhandmade/>

! or phone Anne 07968 443132